

Ill Be Home for Peacemas

Ill Be home for Christmas aren't the words that anyone in Bailey Hamilton's family have heard lately. She isn't exactly a recluse (so she tells herself and her couch-stain-turned best friend, Fred), but when it comes to Christmas, she prefers a pair of sweats and peaceful time with the television - anything, really, to stay away from her hometown of St. Augustine, Florida, where things are anything but quiet and a hidden sandbar of quiet and painful memories lurks. But after an incident with a homeless man dubs her the Santa Slugger, Bailey finds herself in the last place she expected - home in St. Augustine. Through her stepmother Olivas' celebration of Peacemas, her adopted African brother Ukembes' hujta fire, a Christmas parade float entitled Jesus Through The Years, surprise weddings, an unexpected pregnancy, and quality time with a former flame, Bailey finds that the life she has been running away from is the one she really needed.
